

Secretary Dortch,

My husband has memory problems as well as hearing problems. He had gotten used to the old way when the captions come up automatically, he is now having trouble remembering to click the on button. Remember many hearing impaired people either have or eventually develop dementia selma Willner