

I'm appalled how far our country has slipped to such low levels. There are no more morals, foul language is amuck, violence is everywhere. Where are the good standards today? Please do your part in restoring good & not bad to this country.