Re: Freeconference.com, Inc./Iotum Inc.
Request for Extension of Special Temporary Authority
WC Docket No. 12-329

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Pursuant to Section 214 of the Communications Act, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 214, Freeconference.com, Inc. (“Freeconference.com”) and Iotum, Inc. (“Iotum”) (collectively “Applicants”) hereby request a sixty (60) day extension of the Special Temporary Authority (“STA”) that is due to expire on June 10, 2013 to allow the Applicants to continue providing service pursuant to the transaction outlined in the underlying application for transfer of 214 authority, as amended, filed in the above-referenced docket (the “Application”).

On February 11, 2013, the Wireline Competition Bureau granted the STA for a sixty (60) day period that expired on April 12, 2013, to allow Applicants to consummate the transaction, and the Wireline Competition Bureau granted an extension of the STA for an additional sixty (60) days on April 11, 2013 that expires on June 10, 2013. The Application was filed with the Commission on October 24, 2012, was supplemented on November 16, 2012, and was amended on April 9, 2013. The Department of Justice filed a deferral request on December 3, 2012, noting that the Team Telecom agencies wished to review the transaction. The Commission subsequently removed the application from streamlined processing pursuant to a public notice issued on December 11, 2012. On May 21, 2013, the Applicants notified the Commission that the Application was consummated pursuant to the current STA, but the transfer of 214 authority requested in the Application is still pending.

Team Telecom’s review of the Application is ongoing and, therefore, an extension of the STA is necessary to allow additional time for Team Telecom’s review. Extension of the STA will serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity because it will permit the continued provision of service without interruption to customers while the Commission considers the Application.

Applicants acknowledge that the grant of this STA extension request will not prejudice any action the Commission may take on the underlying Application. Applicants further acknowledge that the STA may be revoked at any time by the Commission upon its own motion. Representatives of Team Telecom and the Department of Justice have been informed of this request and do not object.

Please contact me if you have any additional questions.

Sincerely,
