

I do not feel that lowering the standards of T.V. is something we as a society should allow. I for one do not want my children exposed to this kind of material especially in a medium that we watch together. I feel that what we really need is more family friendly, uplifting entertainment not morally bankrupt entertainment that will achieve nothing except weakening my children's moral standards! Please, I am begging you do not allow this lowering of decency standards to pass.