

Please do not loosen the decency enforcement standards. It is important for the sake of children and general public welfare that all nudity and profanity should be prohibited on broadcast TV. If anything, the standards should be stricter!