

I want more decency on TV with less violence,sex,profanity. It should be family friendly and not insult and worry me as a single grandmother of 15.I believe this lack of decency affects our society in huge detrimental ways. I would never let my family watch most of the junk on TV these days.