

Our country is falling apart because of the decay of moral standards and the effect that has on families. The last thing we need is to allow more nudity and profanity on television. Please do not change the decency enforcement standards!