

Please do not reduce the broadcast decency standards in effect. If anything, they should be increased. The media, particularly television, is filled with sleazy, offensive material that has a tremendous negative effect on our youth and society. We are counting on you to maintain ethics and decency and keep at least some standard for our public airways.