

i support any and all changes necessary to allow the broadcasting of expletives and nudity. not censoring creative freedom will make this great country even greater.