

When FCC regulations weaken with regards to decency in public broadcast, there will be no limit going down toward profanity, nudity, etc which will deteriorate the morality in the US society more and more. It could lead to more social costs because it could cause for more violence and crime. We need public broadcasting which anytime anyone could enjoy even with whole family members young or old.