

Television has become disgusting to watch. Four letter words all over the place, sex and violence. It seems no show is immune. I can remember when pregnant was never heard on television! We are becoming a nation that has it's senses dulled by all of the foul language coming out of the mouths of actors and actresses today. Shame!