

TV media has gotten so bad that there are few things I can let my kids watch. Even when my husband and I try and watch something "safe" we get bombarded by awful commercials and advertisements for other TV shows! Please help us control this. If someone wants to watch these types of programs then leave them on certain channels. Please don't make the rest of us shun in bewilderment at such images!!