To whom it may concern:

We would like to register an opinion on subject #13-18 permitting isolated expletives and isolated non sexual nudity on broadcast TV. It is my opinion that this should absolutely not be allowed. The general public and their children should have a choice not to be exposed to or have to avoid regular broadcast shows. Avoiding seeing or hearing shows or trailers and advertisements of them would obviously be impossible. We already have that problem to a lesser extent.

Individuals who desire to see or hear this offensive behavior have other options from cable channels, theaters, and other venues.

If you allow this to happen, many Americans who have moral objection to such programming will be left with no option but to discontinue viewing broadcast TV.
