

This is to express our extreme dismay that the FCC is considering allowing nudity and foul language freer reign on TV. The FCC has the responsibility to uphold decency in broadcasting. Why would they have even a question that the types of things that they want to do constitute a breakdown and a betrayal of the trust that has been placed in them? We, as families, have no one on our side.