

Profanity and nudity are irrational social taboos whose only legitimacy is lent to them by artificially making them forbidden.

It is not the hallmark of a technologically advanced and supposedly free society to repress or inhibit free expression for any non-legitimate reason.

Censorship is always abused and is always used by one group to repress or control another.

Absolutely, no to censorship, we don't need parents, rather a government that supports our freedoms.