

I am astonished every time I hear profanity on t.v. I specifically find channels that are safe for my children but profanity AND nudity is entering in so many places. I am beginning to turn away from t.v. all together.

Please do not change the decency enforcement standards. As a family we still need options to turn to.

Thank you,
Katrina Garcia