

Why does the FCC approve the use of nudity and vulgarity? Is it to teach our children that this is an accepted way to express ourselves? Is it to encourage adults to lower their morality?(if it's not already low enough). It's getting to the point where there is little or no decency on TV and I find this completely unacceptable.

Notifying any and all sponsors of programs like this seems to be the only thing that, occasionally, has any effect. I certainly wish the FCC would raise their standards or those in power would be replaced with people of higher standards
