

Vulgarity, obscenity, profanity and nudity serve only hedonism and undermine individual human worth by particularly degrading women and children. Rather than rewarding purveyors of moral filth the FCC should be diligent in blocking all such garbage and striving to uplift public discourse and behavior and to encourage civility.