

Please keep the airwaves free of morally destructive material, including pornography (nudity, sex) on TV. It is shameful that the public even has to ask the FCC to enforce laws already in existence in this regard, but I implore you not to change them to allow even more filth to infiltrate the homes of America. The moral degradation that will result will be on the heads of all who permitted it, and we will all stand accountable for our actions some day.