To whom this may concern,

I oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletive and nudity on the public airwaves, even if brief or fleeting.

The supreme court has confirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies regarding expletives and nudity especially during times when children are likely to be watching or listening. Relaxing the current policy would not serve the public interest and I urge the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on stations FCC licenses.

Sincerely,
Chris Tejml
