

People are seriously considering allowing MORE nudity and profanity than already exists on tv? This is ludicrous! There are so few programs available that actually build up character rather than subtly tear it down, not even mentioning those that SCREAM their hate for values. Rise up, sleepers, and defend the cause of morality! We want LESS profanity, LESS nudity, LESS sexuality, LESS defiance, LESS teen sex/relationships, LESS shallow desires, LESS crude humor, LESS foul messages, such as the ends justifies the means, i.e. it's ok to lie if it's for the greater good or defy parents' rules if they're "unreasonable." STOP polluting my air waves!!
