

I urge the FCC to NEVER relax, in any way, the current standards regarding the use of obscene language and full or partial nudity on broadcast television. In fact, I urge the FCC to TIGHTEN these standards so that ABSOLUTELY NO obscene or profane language or nudity is allowed on broadcast television!

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Gary Jelich