

This comment is regarding the FCC proposed weakening of decency standards for broadcast TV. Hearing regarding this proposal will begin June 18, 2013.

Please do not allow any further weakening of decency standards for broadcast TV. And please enforce the decency standards that are in place. The future of our nation depends on this. Moral decay and lawlessness infects a country where there are no standards.