

Please keep profanity and nudity off of the broadcast networks. I'm a father of 5 boys, and can say first hand that it's becoming very, very difficult to keep unwanted content out of our home. Please do everything you can to keep nudity off of television, and to reduce vulgar or profane language and sexual and violent acts, especially during family viewing hours.