

I highly implore you to prevent the FCC from allowing nudity and profanity during normal viewing hours. It is already challenging enough to find something to watch on tv that is appropriate for my children during "prime time", without having to worry about it all of the time. Our society has become so lax, tossing profanity around and showing more skin at every corner. Most of the time it doesn't even enhance the subject matter, and one can tell that profanity or sexuality is thrown in just to give a show a higher rating, adding nothing to the plot or storyline. As a mother of three children, I beg you to reconsider allowing this to happen.
