

Our culture is already being destroyed by the current level of nudity and profanity. Please do not open the door even farther. My children aren't even letting our grandchildren watch TV any longer because of the current level. Man's lustful desire will always ask for more, but who will stand up for decency? Are you all willing to?