

In society, we wonder, what is wrong with our youth and yet daily, we pump smut, violence and denomic substances into our TVs or computers! Because FCC is government run, it has an ethical responsibility to our community and our country to uphold what is morally sound. If it (FCC), continues to choose morally unacceptable programs, it is abetting to the moral and spiritual decline of a society that was once God-fearing and honorable.