

Sirs:

Please give consideration to our youth, especially, and DO NOT ease the guidelines any further to show nakedness on TV and hear foul language. There needs to be protection of our children by our society and not just consideration of what adults want. Is there no safe place for children anymore? Whatever happened to our reach for the Good, the True and the Beautiful?? Can we count on you to provide space for decency?

Sincerely,

Lois C. Mammel