

I am totally against allowing pornography and obscene language on television. I already think what is shown goes too far. Commercials that come on during family shows are inappropriate for my children and are already a problem.