

Free speech doesn't mean you can say anything you want without consequences; i.e. yelling "fire" in a theatre. Profanity and pornography on television and the internet harms our families and is NOT free speech! If you continue to not support decency in communications, then you ought to just dissolve the FCC and go home!