

There are already too many ways for our children and grandchildren to be exposed to nudity and sexually explicit scenes without adding more to television. Please, I beg you to stop this process. As one who was exposed at an early age to pornography, I know the damage it does to a child's emotional development and feeling of self-worth. Our children need to be protected not exposed to more harm.