

Im tired of all the filth, vulgarity and nudity on television these days. Bring back wholesome family friendly television programming. One of the few wholesome programs on today is Duck Dynasty, they are a major hit and don't have to use any nudity, vulgarity or filth. The majority of the public wants "clean" television programming which is way more entertaining and to a much broader audience.