

I am completely against nudity and profanity on broadcast TV. Nudity and profanity are completely useless, they provide no value to a show or to humanity. The only thing is that this will enforce even more to our children that it is acceptable to be promiscuous.