

We as a nation cannot afford to lure our children into porn. It ruins lives, stifles creativity and endangers our girls. I'm the father of three girls. Their lives will be happier if they marry men of virtue.