

Please do not lower decency standards in our country by allowing nudity and profanity on television, especially when children might be watching. Requiring that such usage be "isolated" is not acceptable. There are at least two independent reasons this should not be allowed. One is with regards to children's likely exposure. The other is a general lowering of the bar for media as an artistic outlet.