

I am writing to express my sincere hope that our prime time airways will be kept clean from nudity and profanity. The next generation of our country is at stake. Children's innocence should be protected by keeping our airways clean and wholesome. Please do not lower the standards of decency.