

I am disturbed and ashamed that the FCC would allow having adult content during normal broadcast hours. its bad enough that kids see many truomatic things in the world, and now putting it with in their very eyes. I can say if this continues to progress, well I simply will just turn the TV off!