

I am against nudity and profanity being put on broadcast tv. Our children and young people need good morals and language placed before them especially in the homes.