

I object to the FCC proposal which would allow isolated incidences of nudity and profanity on network television during hours when children watch television.