

I am strongly opposed to the change in rules governing decency on broadcast TV. It is hard enough finding quality entertainment that doesn't bombard children with sexual or violent images. Decency is one hallmark of a civil society. Don't cave on this.

Thank you.