

I want good, uplifting, clean, family entertainment on tv. Entertainment that I'd feel good watching with my parents, watching with my grandparents, and watching with my future children. There are already so many places on tv and the internet where people can go to find sex, violence, and profanities. We need regulation on tv or else where can the rest of us go to find the alternative?! A clean mind is a powerful mind.