

We need to stop the nudity, gay relationships and profound language, used during hours when children are watching.