

I do not at all support the FCC's desire to sanction even "isolated" nudity or profanity on broadcast television. Such a move will harm a whole generation of children and young adults.