

PLEASE do not change the standards that would permit profanity and nudity during daytime viewing on TV. Our children and youth are exposed to too much of that at night as it is. We sure don't need it is day time TV.

Sandra Johnson