

We implore you not to lower the broadcast decency standards to allow nudity and profanity on TV especially during times when children are watching. If anything, we should be raising the bar higher with decency standards to protect our children. The highest penalty should be applied to any station not adhering to the decency standards.