

I oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards that would allow broadcast expletives and nudity on public airwaves.

Relaxing the current policy would be a disservice to public interest. We must protect our children from any compromise in our current standards. If anything, the FCC should be more strict in this area.