

Television is already poisoning our young people with the blatant use of God's name, the sex, present nudity and irresponsible portrayal of people that does not represent the majority of people today. Please do not allow this progression of immorality to continue. Please protect our children. You will be accountable for every eye that sees what you broadcast.