

I heard that some would like to allow nudity and profanity on TV -- even at times when children are likely to be watching. I am shocked and ashamed that we as a society would even consider doing such a thing. Please have the courage to stand against this terrible influence on our children.