

The freedom of speech right was not written by the founding fathers so that all forms of decency in the media may be discarded. The founding fathers who were parents are probably "rolling in their graves" as I write this.

Please keep the children, who are this nations future, in mind when broadcasting. When flipping through channels, they should not be subjected to indecency, blatant sexual innuendos, etc. that change their paradigm of the world and chip away at their innocence forever.