

I was wondering if an internet station by the name of Niagara broadcasting Company owned and run by Salvatore Paoenessa is illegly using the bandwidth and power from the transmitter of WJLL Radio. Please contact me about this matter so I may tell Mr. Phillips. Thank you. I do not think that he has an FRN number and I think that ALL communications facilities especially those in a market should be licensed by the FCC.